ORDER STAYING DEFENDANT'S RELEASE

This case came before the court for hearing today on the government's oral motion, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), to detain defendant pending trial. Finding that defendant had rebutted the presumption of detention set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(3) and based upon its consideration of the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g), the court ordered that defendant be released upon his compliance with specified conditions. The government then requested that defendant's release be stayed to allow the government to review the matter and decide whether to seek review of the release order by the presiding District Judge, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3145(a)(1).

The government's oral motion for stay shall be ALLOWED on the following terms:

1. At or before 4:00 p.m. on August 16, 2022, the government shall file a motion for review of the release order or inform the court the government will not be appealing the release order.
2. The release of defendant shall be STAYED, and he shall remain in custody until 4:00 p.m. on August 16, 2022, pending filing of any motion for review.
3. If the government files its motion for review by 4:00 p.m. on August 16, 2022, the stay shall continue in effect until the court's resolution of the government's motion.

4. If the government does not file a motion for review by 4:00 p.m. on August 16, 2022, the stay shall terminate at that time and the defendant shall be released pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Order Setting Conditions of Release entered August 16, 2022.

SO ORDERED, this 16th day of August 2022.

KIMBERLY A. SWANK
United States Magistrate Judge
